Sedalia is a special hometown. We want to make you feel like you're at home here also – whether you stay for one day, one week, or a lifetime!

Sedalia is the home of the Missouri State Fair and many off season activities at the Fair Grounds. Please don't miss Broadway, our beautiful tree-lined street, and the warmth of historic downtown Sedalia. You will find Sedalia is a true blue ribbon community – a great place to live, work and play. The rich cultural background of cattle drives and the once vital Missouri Pacific shops are now memories, but our city continues to add new history. The world famous Daum Museum of Contemporary Art, located at State Fair Community College, and the annual Scott Joplin Ragtime Festival in June are parts of what makes Sedalia such a unique city.

You will find many things to do here. More hardy souls bike on the Katy Trail, while others enjoy unique dining experiences at the historic Wheel Inn, home of the Gooberburger, or delicious Kehde's BBQ, or elegant dining at McGrath's and other fine restaurants.

Sedalia is centrally located if you want to take a weekend trip to the city, Kansas City is only an hour away to the west on highway 50. If you travel to the east for one hour on highway 50, you will find Jefferson City, Missouri's State Capital. Truman Lake recreational region is only 30 minutes away to the south, and Columbia, the home of Missouri's great land grant university is only one hour east on highway 70.
